About conference

The Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Vojvodina and Color Media Communications are organizing an online conference titled “A Year Later: The Outlook of Vojvodina’s Economy”.

The conference will be held on Thursday, June 3rd, 2021, starting at 10:00 am, in the main hall of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Vojvodina in Novi Sad, 11, Hajduk Veljkova Street, with a live broadcast on the YouTube channel of Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Vojvodina.

Various ambassadors and representatives of regional chambers of commerce will take part in the conference online. The participants of the online conference will talk about Vojvodina’s economy and investments, but also how certain industries and businesses, both domestic and foreign, will look in the future.

The conference will also cover topics like the organization of industrial branches and the private sector in Vojvodina, as well as cooperation at the local level after the pandemic. There will be a talk about the experiences of the European regions in renewing interregional cooperation which is certainly important for sustainable economic development. This topic will be discussed in more detail by the representatives of the chambers of commerce of European regions with whom the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Vojvodina has signed cooperation agreements and has implemented numerous joint activities.
